

World Book Day – Thursday 6th March

“This year we are inviting everyone to Read Your Way. Our research shows that children feel reading is something they have to do, rather than something they choose to do” National Literacy Trust

Our goal is to inspire a love of reading by giving children the opportunity to explore books in a fun and relaxed way. Following the success of our Books@Bedtime event last term, we have decided to theme our World Book Day event as a ‘Bedtime Stories Day’

On the day, children are invited to come to school dressed in their pajamas – ready to enjoy reading in their own way. If your child has already prepared a book character costume, they are welcome to wear that as well!
